Manuel Cid, Chief of Police

Attempted Robbery and Stabbing Suspect Arrested

REPORT NUMBER: 22-2369 (Stabbing); 22-2371 (Attempt Robbery)

On May 31st, at approximately 4:30 PM, Culver City Police Officers received a radio call for service regarding a stabbing that occurred on a Culver City Bus at the transfer station, located at 6000 Sepulveda Blvd.

Upon the officer's arrival, a victim of a stabbing was located. Culver City Fire Department responded to the scene and provided medical aid to the victim who sustained a non-life-threatening stab wound to his right elbow.

The victim stated that the suspect approached him while he was on the bus and began to punch him in the face unprovoked. During the assault, the suspect produced a hunting knife and stabbed the victim in his right elbow. After the stabbing, the suspect fled the area on foot.

Officers responded and detained the suspect in the immediate area.

While detaining the suspect, an additional victim approached CCPD Officers and stated that the same suspect had just attempted to rob him inside of the Trader Joes. The victim of the attempted robbery stated that the suspect approached him with an unknown object in his hand, demanded his wallet, and then attempted to physically remove the victim's wallet from his rear pocket. In fear for his life, the victim was able to run away from the suspect and flag down CCPD Officers.

The suspect, a 28-year-old resident of Long Beach, was positively identified by both victims and several witnesses and was placed under arrest for Assault with a Deadly Weapon and Attempted Robbery.

This case will be presented to the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office for filing consideration.
