Culver City Police Department
PRESS RELEASE

Jason Sims, Chief of Police

Attempted Murder / Suspect Arrested

Report Number: 23-2554

On May 14, 2023 at 6:07 pm, Culver City Police Officers responded to a call for service regarding a male subject who was being detained by Los Angeles Sheriff's Deputies in the area of Slauson Avenue and Buckingham Parkway.

Officers met with the victim who advised them that he was walking on Buckingham Parkway when the suspect approached him while wearing a ski mask and gloves. The suspect walked behind the victim and forcefully removed his backpack. As the victim resisted, the suspect stabbed the victim several times with a large butcher knife, causing multiple lacerations to the victim's back and arm.

Los Angeles Sheriff's Deputies received the original radio call and responded. Upon arrival, they located and detained the suspect. The victim was treated for his injuries by Los Angeles County Fire Department Personnel and transported to a local hospital where he received further treatment for non-life threatening injuries.

The suspect was transported and booked at the Culver City Police Department. The case will be presented to the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office for filing considerations.

Anyone with any information or questions regarding this incident, please contact the Culver City Police Department's Public Information Officer, Sergeant Edward Baskaron at 310-253-6316 or the Watch Commander at 310-253-6202.
