PRESS RELEASE
Manuel Cid, Acting Chief of Police

ARMED CARJACKING

Suspect: Male Black, 20-30 years old, 6'0" tall, thin build, wearing a dark sweat suit, no further description.

Weapon Used: Black Handgun

On January 17th, 2021 at approximately 10:47 PM., the Culver City Police Department received a radio call of an armed "carjacking" that had just occurred at 6221 Bristol Parkway. The victim stated that as she was leaning against her car, the above-described suspect walked up to her, pointed a black handgun at her, and said, "Give me everything you have." The suspect then snatched the victim's phone out of her hand and demanded her car keys. In fear for her life, the victim gave the suspect her car keys and the suspect drove away in the victim's vehicle. Within minutes, Culver City Officers were able to locate the victim's unoccupied vehicle in the city of Los Angeles. The suspect was not located.

Anyone with questions or information related to this crime is asked to contact the Culver City Police Department's Public Information Officer Lieutenant Estrada at 310-253-6316.
