PRESS RELEASE

Manuel Cid, Acting Chief of Police

ATTEMPTED MURDER

On 7-1-20, at about 5:10 PM, Culver City Police Officers were hailed down in the area of Venice Blvd. and Sepulveda Blvd. by a community member regarding a stabbing that had just occurred. Officers found a male subject who had several stab wounds to his back. The officers rendered aid to the victim and requested paramedics respond. The victim was transported by Fire Department personnel to a local hospital. His injuries are considered serious but non- life threatening at this time.

Preliminary information revealed that the victim was involved in a road rage incident and was assaulted and stabbed by two other subjects who fled the area in a vehicle.

Culver City Police Detectives are on scene conducting a follow- up investigation.

If anyone has further information regarding this incident, please call the Watch Commander at 310-253-6202.
