Culver City Police Department
PRESS RELEASE
Manuel Cid, Chief of Police

Public Assistance Sought in String of Vandalisms

Suspect Vehicle: dark-colored possible 2005-2012 Range Rover Sport

On April 12th, 2021, at approximately 8pm-10:45pm, the Culver City Police Department responded to two calls of vandalism in the 11900 block of Washington Blvd. regarding two businesses which had sustained shattered street facing windows. In the early morning of April 13th, 2021, CCPD Officers discovered three additional businesses that also sustained similar front window damage on the 12900-13100 blocks of Washington Blvd.

On May 20th, 2021, at approximately 11:30pm, CCPD Officers responded to a business in the 12700 block of Washington Blvd. regarding its front window being shattered. On the same evening, two additional businesses on the 11900 and 13300 blocks of Washington Blvd. reported their street facing windows had been shattered by apparent BB pellets. CCPD Detectives obtained video footage of the above-described suspect vehicle, which was observed in the area at the time of these most recent vandalisms. It is believed the same suspect(s) may be responsible for all of the aforementioned vandalisms and over $10 thousand dollars in damage to Culver City businesses.

Anyone with information related to these crimes is asked to contact the Culver City Police Department Public Information Officer, Assistant Chief Jason Sims at (310)253-6391 or the Watch Commander at (310)253-6202 and reference Report #21-0002008.
