Follow Home Armed Robbery

Report #: 22-986

On March 11, 2022 at approximately 12:23 am, Culver City Police Officers received a call for service at the 3600 Block of Wesley Ave regarding an armed robbery and assault that just occurred.

The officers responded to the location and met with four victims who indicated they had left a nearby business and traveled home. When they arrived home in their vehicle, they were immediately confronted by the suspects who exited a dark SUV and pointed handguns with laser pointers at them, while demanding their possessions.

One victim was pistol whipped, while a second victim had his phone, Rolex watch, and keys stolen during the robbery. Officers recovered an abandoned magazine (containing multiple .40 caliber rounds) which fell from the suspect's firearm after pistol whipping the victim.

During the officers' on-scene investigation, they learned that the suspects were seen exiting the suspect vehicle and at least one suspect was seen with a handgun in his possession. Culver City Police Detectives are actively working the case.
