Culver City Police Department
PRESS RELEASE

Jason Sims, Chief of Police

Attempted Murder

Report Number: 24-2237

Culver City Police responded to the 6100 block of Slauson Avenue on Sunday, May 5, 2024, at approximately 2:45 pm regarding multiple calls of what appeared to be an altercation happening in the parking lot. When officers arrived, they located a female adult victim who had been stabbed numerous times and was bleeding heavily. The victim was transported to the hospital for medical treatment and is currently in stable condition.

Officers immediately worked to locate the suspect involved. A perimeter was set up, and police searched the area where the suspect was last seen fleeing on foot. A short time later, officers found the suspect hiding in bushes at Cougar Park near Hannum Avenue and Slauson Avenue. The suspect was taken into custody without incident.

A preliminary investigation revealed that the suspect approached the victim in the parking lot. The suspect stabbed the victim multiple times before fleeing the area on foot. The knife believed to be used in the attack was recovered at the scene.

The suspect, a 38-year-old Male Hispanic with an unknown city of residence, will be booked at the Culver City Police Department jail for attempted murder.

Anyone with any information regarding this incident or who may have been in the area with a vehicle that could have captured video of the attack is asked to immediately contact the Culver City Police Department Public Information Officer, Jennifer Atenza, at (310) 253-6120 or jennifer.atenza@culvercity.org or the Watch Commander at (310) 253-6202.
