438.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The purpose of this policy is to provide guidelines to members of the Culver City Police Department, sworn and non-sworn, relating to immigration and interacting with federal immigration officials.

438.2 POLICY

It is the policy of the Culver City Police Department that all members make personal and professional commitments to equal enforcement of the law and equal service to the public. Confidence in this commitment will increase the effectiveness of this department in protecting and serving the entire community and recognizing the dignity of all persons, regardless of their actual or perceived race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, color, sexual orientation/ identification, gender, gender identity, marital status, age, disability, political affiliation, or immigration status.

Except as otherwise specified below, it is the policy of the Culver City Police Department not to assist in the enforcement of federal immigration law. (Res. No. 2017-R025 § 3(1))

438.3 VICTIMS AND WITNESSES

To encourage crime reporting and cooperation in the investigation of criminal activity, all individuals, regardless of their immigration status, must feel as secure as possible that contacting or being addressed by members of law enforcement will not lead to immigration inquiry and/ or deportation. While it may be necessary to determine the identity of a victim or witness, members shall treat all individuals equally and without regard to actual or perceived race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, color, sexual orientation/ identification, gender, gender identity, marital status, age, disability, political affiliation, or immigration status in any way that would violate the United States or California constitutions.

438.4 IMMIGRATION INQUIRIES PROHIBITED

Officers shall not inquire into an individual's immigration status for any purpose not specifically authorized under this policy and, if authorized, only to the extent necessary to achieve that purpose. (Government Code § 7284.6; Res. No. 2017-R025 § 2(5)).

Because place of birth may be perceived or used as a proxy for immigration status, inquiries into place of birth are permitted only as follows. With regard to an individual who is subject to arrest, such inquiries are permitted where necessary for law enforcement purposes unrelated to immigration enforcement. With regard to an individual who is interviewed voluntarily (including as a potential witness or victim), or who is temporarily detained but not under arrest, officers should not ask for or record his or her place of birth.

Officers may inquire into an individual's immigration status only in circumstances involving qualifying that individual for a U-Visa or T-Visa (8 USC § 1101(a) (15) (T) & (U)), as well as for the purposes of extending appropriate privileges and immunities to foreign diplomatic and consular representatives, in accordance with international law.

438.5 DETENTIONS FOR IMMIGRATION VIOLATIONS

An officer shall not detain any individual, for any length of time, for a civil violation of federal immigration laws, nor based on an immigration-related civil or administrative warrant or detainer (Government Code § 7284.6; (Res. No. 2017-R025 § 2(9)). An officer shall not detain any individual, for any length of time, on the basis of an actual or perceived criminal violation of federal immigration laws, absent a federal judicial warrant (Government Code § 7284.6).

438.5.1 DETENTIONS OR INVESTIGATIONS FOR NON-IMMIGRATION CRIMES

An officer shall not investigate or surveil an individual with respect to non-immigration crimes on the basis, in whole or in part, of such individual's actual or perceived immigration status (Res. No. 2017-R025 § 2(7)). When exercising reasonable discretion whether to detain, interrogate, or arrest an individual for a non-immigration crime, including whether to cite and release an individual with a notice to appear, officers shall make such decisions based on public safety considerations and not, in whole or in part, on an individual's actual or perceived immigration status (Res. No. 2017-R025 § 2(7), 3(3)).

When exercising such reasonable discretion, an officer shall accept a valid California AB60 driver's license, a federal non-compliant driver's license, as well as a Consular Card, as identification to the same extent, without discrimination, as any other valid California driver's license (Vehicle Code 12801.9).

438.5.2 EMERGENCY CARE FOR CHILDREN FOUND IN PRESENCE OF ARRESTED/ DETAINED INDIVIDUALS

Absent evidence of the child involved in commission of the crime suspected, child abuse, neglect or immediate danger to the child, an officer shall afford opportunity for a detained individual whose child is found in their presence and detained to call a family member, appropriate caregiver or close family friend to transfer care of said child to the family member, caregiver or close family friend prior to contacting the Department of Children and Family Services. Such opportunity should be afforded to the detained individual upon arrest, and should not be unreasonably delayed after detention. Communication of, or inquiries into, information related to the immigration status of the child, family member, guardian, care giver, or close family friend who may take custody of the child for purposes of immigration enforcement to the federal authorities shall follow the same prohibitions provided for in the instance of victims or witnesses in this policy.
